Business Men of Juarez Discuss Plans For Payment of Taxes.

VISITORS TO MEXICO ARE NOT SEARCHED

Mexican federal officials say they think a battle is eminent below Ujinaga. A force of rebisnumbering 350 is reported at Los Mimbres. Federal forces numering 400 under Gen. Jose de la Laz Sota, a former Madero insurrecto, have set out to encounter the enemy. This information was received in Juarez Prisoners Arrive at Border. Prisoners from the skirmish at El Ruico, west of Pearson Friday morning were brought to Junrez Saturday morning, according to the report Americans received in Juarez Saturday. The prisoners included one of Orozco's officers and one woman who was captured by Capt. Candelario Cervantes during the engagement in which three were killed and two wounded. The prisoners were delivered to Gen. Tellez, who is in com-mand of the war north of Chihushua. Meet Juarez Mayor.

Business men of Juarez numbering about 75 met today with Dr. Cardenas, the new mayor of the over-river town. The meeting was to discuss the general conditions in revolution-ridden Juarez, but more particularly regarding the payment of delinquent taxes. A committee composed of nine Juarez residents was appointed by the mayor to confer with the state legislature at Chihuahua in

It is the stund of Dr. Cardenas, meeting general approval, that the taxes paid by Juarez merchants to the rebel government during Orozco's occupation of the town, should not be duplicated by the fedral government now in force. However, there are many taxes due before the rebel regime. All this will be regulated by the committee in conferences by telegraph and letter with the state legislature at the state capital. Passengers Not Searched.

Voyagers to Juarez this morning missed their morning rub-down. United States soldiers stationed at the inter-national bridges have given up their custom of many weeks past in searching all passengers on street cars and pedestrians, the ceremony including a rub-down over the back and sides and legs. The order was issued last night by Gen. Steever that the sentries at the bridges only search those they considered sus-

He is said to have incurred the enmity of many people who interpret his views as hostile to the interests of the city.

Expect Ecarly Adjournment. Leaders of both houses went to the capitol prepared to carry out their program for adjournment sine die late program for adjournment sine die late in the afternoon. Only one possible obstacle stood in the way—representative Murdoch and his point of order, no quorum, which forced the house to adjourn Friday night without acting upon the postoffice appropriation bill. Assurances had been given, however, that Murdoch would not press the point again.

Mr. Murdoch's fight against the conference report on the postal appropriation bill providing payment of not more than $35,000 to the St. Louis Terminal association for carrying mails across Eads bridge collapsed when the report was adopted with only Mr. Murdoch voting against it. This, the leaders say, practically assured adjournment of congress before night.

The house disagreed with the senate on certain amendments to the general deficiency hill and the bill was sent back for further adjustment. Representatives Cannon, Fitzgeraid and Sisson were named as managers for the Speaker Champ Clark in delivering the valedictory of the Democratic house of the 52d congress, asserted that his-torians would declare with absolute truth that the news Democrats of the 51st and 52d congresses did great things and "laye made a sweeping Democratic sigt and aid congresses did great things and "lawe made a sweeping Democratic victory approximately certain, a victory that will give us the house, the senate and the president."

The speaker in a tribute to leaders of both parties, declared that no majority was ever more successfully led than by representative Underwood, nor any minority ever led more ably by representative Mann.

"I have not," said he, "always agreed with brother Man-God forbid-but he with brother Man—God forbid—but he lives up fully to his name. He is in very truth a man."

Speaker Clark said that for years the Democrats had been sneered at "as a party of negation, green hands in formulating and conducting public business, ridiculed as a mob, a rabble, without coherence or discipline as militia fighting regulars and even the exact date on which we would dissolve into warring factions and go to pieces was set down in type."

"But." he added, "the Democrats have fought and won like veterans and constitute as thoroughly a disciplined force stitute as theroughly a disciplined force as ever appeared in the house or any other parliamentary body since parlia-mentary bodies were instituted among men, mustered our full strength on men, mustered our tail Strength to every important proposition and passed two great tariff bills over the presi-dent's veto, the first instance of the kind in the history of the republic."

Thanks Republicans.

The speaker expressed thanks and the gratitude of the country to "the hrave, wise and patriotic Republicans who cooperated with us in passing good who cooperated with us in passing good bills. The secret of our maryelous suc-cess is simple—unity of thought, pur-pose and action, frequent counsel, a spirit of mutual conciliation and a strict adherence to principle."

Allege Political Activity. The house committee on war department expenditures today reported that Maj. Beecher B. Ray, U. S. A., who the president yesterday nominated to be deputy paymaster general of the army, had been engaged in political activity, particularly in the interest of president Taft; had been four times charged with serious offences never yindicated and Conspiracy Is Said to Be to Acting County Clerk Refuses to Produce Ballot Boxes Demanded.

MANDAMUS WRIT TO BE PREPARED IN CASE

Following the refusal of Chris Aranda, acting county clerk in the absence of Park Pitman, to surrender the ballot boxes when demanded Saturday morning, an application for a writ of mandamus is now being prepared and will be filed, it is said, either Saturday afternoon or Monday. The application will include the boxes from precincts Nos. 1, 2, 3, 8, 7, 15, 20 and 25, and a request to the court in which it is filed that the county clerk be com-and a request to the court in which it is filed that the county clerk be compelled to surrender those boxes.

The action taken Saturday morning has precipitated the election contest, which has been before the subcommittee appointed by the executive committee for seven days, into the courts where it will be adjudicated. The resolution responsible for that, was introduced Saturday afternoon by C. W. Marshall, one of the anti-ring members of the subcommittee. The question of the adoption of the resolution called for a vote, and the members of the subcommittee stood divided on the point. The two ring members being against its adoption and the anti-members voting in favor of it. For the third time since the institution of the proceedings before the subcommittee, chairman Tom Lea cast the deciding vote which was in favor of the adoption of the resolution. The resolution presented contained a clause to the effect that chairman Lea prepare a request for the demand of the boxes to be served on Chris Aranda, chief deputy clerk. The demand for the boxes to be served on Chris Aranda, chief deputy clerk. The demand for the boxes to be served on Chris Aranda, chief deputy clerk. The demand for the boxes to be served on Chris Aranda, chief deputy clerk. The demand for the boxes to be served on Chris Aranda, chief deputy clerk with a copy of the resolution, was handed to Chris Aranda by L. H. Everidge, the official stenographer of the subcommittee, at 9 oclock Aranda appeared before the subcommittee and the attorneys for the contestants and contestees. It was suggested by Seymour Thurmond, before Aranda was put on the stand, that the record show that Aranda was acting county clerk, had full charge of the office, and had the ballot boxes containing the ballots used at the recent primaries in his possession. That was incorporated in the county of the county the took the stand. used at the recent primaries in his pos-session. That was incorporated in the record Aranda then took the stand. No testimony was introduced Saturday, and it is not probable that any witnesses will be examined until the matter of the contest is settled by the court. In the event the court decides against the contention of the contestants it was stated that there would not be any further testimony introduced. Should there be a favorable decision, it was reported that there would be other testimony on the contest heard. other testimony on the contest heard. Adjournment was taken until 2 oclock Monday afternoon.

Question of Which Court.

With the declaration that application for a writ of mandamus would be sought in the attempt to force a delivery of the ballot boxes, the question arose as to what judge the matter would be brought before. It was understood at first that the application in this instance would be brought before judge A. M. Walthall, of the 41st district court, but Saturday morning it was reported that judge Walthall would disqualify. Mr. Thurmond, atterney for the contestants, the contestants, and members of the anti-ring ants, and members of the anti-ring party expressed themselves as being party expressed themselves as being perfectly satisfied to have the matter decided on by judge Walthall. "I understand," said Mr. Thurmond, "that judge Walthall will disqualify. He would not be disqualified under the law, but he might state reasons which would disqualify him. Of course these would be certified to the governor, and if held good, the governor would have the right to appoint a judge to have the right to appoint a judge to hear the case."

Oppose Colquitt Naming a Judge. That Mr. Thurmond and the anti-ring adherents are opposed to having the selection of a judge to pass on the contest left in the hands of governor Oscar B. Colquitt was plainly stated. It was stated that this was so for obvious was stated that this was so for obvious reasons.

In the case of a disqualification of a district judge the in w provides serenal ways in which one may be selected. One may be on appointment of the governor after the disqualifications of the acting judge have been certified to him. A special judge may be appointed on agreement of the parties to the suit. It is evident that a fight will be waged in the event that judge Walthall disqualifies. It is not probable that the parties involved in the suit can agree on any local man. This was so stated. The antis are settled on the point that they do not want governor Colquitt to appoint the special judge, if one should be necessary, but they do want the case to be heard by judge Walthall.

VETERANS QUARREL; ONE IS KILLED

Austin, Texas, Aug. 24 .- A tragedy occurred this morning at the confederate home which resulted in the killing of James C. Welch, and the arrest of S. M. B. Tyler, charged with the crime. Both are confederate veterans and inmates of the home. Tyler and Welch became involved in an altercation a few days ago and Tyler today met Welch in front of the laun-dry, at the home, and fired two shots at Welch with a 32 caliber revolver, both shots taking effect in Welch's body. He expired aimost immediately. Both of the principals are past 70 years of age. Tyler has been at the home since 1834 and Welch since 1910.
